

INTERNATIONAL FORUM OF NEW CINEMA
Erstwhile CALCUTTA INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL
a CINE CENTRAL, CALCUTTA Presentation
NOVEMBER 10-17, 2008

Regulations

Cine Central Calcutta is the largest film society in India engaged in the task of promoting film-appreciation since the inception of the society in 1965. The society was holding Calcutta International Film Festival Since 1986 with thundering success. In the year 1998 the festival underwent a major structural change and merged with Kolkata Film Festival organised by the Government of West Bengal. It was decided that the International Forum of New Cinema, Calcutta would be held as a separate event with distinct identity under the sole responsibility of Cine Central, Calcutta within the broad framework of Kolkata Film Festival.

The next edition of the International Forum of New Cinema, Calcutta will take place from November 10 to 17, 2008. The Forum will also celebrate the works of young and emerging filmmakers and bring their achievements to great prominence. The Forum is non-competitive and will include feature films completed after January 1, 2006
